Nothing startling or brilliant occurred, but some lively incidents were seen. Many of the bookmakers lost bage sums. The Morris imported colt Ornus, a son of Bend 'Or, carried the money both of the big speculators and the general public in the first race, and he had a decided triumph. In the second race Lizzetta, the winner, was supported freely, but the betting ring profited by the race, because all the money bet on the favorite, Harvest, both for first and second place, was lost, and the majority of the minor speculators, the men who bet from $5 to $100 on a race, put their wagers on Correction, who was unplaced. Several of the bookmakers ravaged their "inside rolls" severely their boldness in betting against Yorkville lie. Charade was withdrawn, and the Belle had only Ambulance and Fidelio to run against, but Mr. Croker feared that his beautiful filly would be defeated, and, in fact, bet a suit of clothes with Edgar M. Johnson that she ould not win the race. The feeling that the Belle would not succeed spread through the betting-ring, and or a long time many bookmakers offered 6 to 5 against her, and some of them even put up 7 to 5. Careful students of racing form could not discover any sufficient reason for expecting either Ambulance or Fidelio to overcome the chestnut beauty with the silver tail, and these careful students backed her all over the ring. At the last moment, Michael F. Dwyer put $5,000 on her and the figures fell. The Bell won the race, spurning her inferior opponents with her flying feet, and the lines were long a the bookmakers' stands when payments were made, Most of the bookmakers thought that Captain S. S. Brown's file Afternoon, by Troubadour Matinee would get the Ladies' Stakes, and held her at a short price, but the majority of betting men preferred the prospects of Naphtha, who defeated Miss Mand at Duly's Lillian Russell second. Naphtha was successful by dint of superior condition. Afternoon apparently had not recovered from the effects of her cent journey from the Southwest, and was unplaced. The number of small speculators who turned in tickets Naphtha to the bookmakers was legion.

In the fifth race Michael Dwyer and other operators th imposing bank accounts made Roche an odds-on But the majority of the moderate buyers of bookmakers' tickets preferred Sam Weller, with Taral in the saddle, at 3, 31-2 and 4 to 1. William Donobue, the owner of Rocke, rode his own horse. No turfman who saw the race doubts that Rocke was and is at best seven pounds better than Sam Weller. But Taral outrode Donohue, and Sam Weller was first by a head. The backers of Roche sighed and

The Morris two-year-olds seem to be improving. The imported colt Ormus ought to succeed in stakes and to put to rout far stronger fields than the troop of maldens which he outran. Correction has had too much racing, and ought to enjoy a rest. She acted before the start as if her temper were soured, and she did not have her usual speed at the finish of five fur longs. It is true, however, that she detests weight as well as distance. With 105 pounds up, when she is at her best, she can almost fly at five furlougs, but she plainly expresses her disapprobation when told to take up 120 pounds, or to travel more than five-eighths of a mile at her highest speed.

Harvest crawled as if he were stale from overracing in a short time with heavy weights. Lizzetta was never faster than she is now.

Mr. Croker ought to be contented, and is contented. Mr. Croker ought to be contented, and is contented, since he wins a stake almost every day. He was in the highest spirits yesterday, even if he did lose a suit of clothes to Mr. Johnson, and his Homeric laughter enlivened the clubhouse lawn. He sailed on Philip J. Dwyer and exchanged Jokes with him, as if Mr. Dwyer were deep in the immest councils of Tammany—were, in fact, one of that tremendous three who wield the thundertolts. MARCION WINS THE GOLD CUP. A BRILLIANT DAY AT ASCOT-ORME CAPTURES

THE ROUS MEMORIAL STAKES.

London, June 15 .- This was the third day of the Ascot Heath race meeting. The contest which attracted the most attention was the race for the Gold Cup, valued at £1,000, with £2,000 in specie added; about two and a half miles. There were forty entries, but only four starters went to the post. Among the entries was that of lainglass, the winner of the Derby, but he did not run. The rece was won by R. C. Vyner's three year old chestnut colt Marcion, by Royal Hampton, out of Emmeline Marcia. Lord Rosslyn's five-year-old brown horse Buccaneer was second, and the Duke of Beaufort's five-year-old black horse Ragimunde third. The other starter was J. H. Houldsworth's five-year-old bay horse Grvieto. The last betting was 5 to 4 against Marcion, 7 to 4 against Baccaneer and 12 to 1 against Ragimunde. Marcion won by eight lengths. There was a distance of four lengths between Enc caneer and Ragimunde. The winner's time was 4:35

THE BRYANT MEMORIAL.

A LETTER ABOUT IT TO THE PARK BOARD.

JOHN BIGELOW'S ACCOUNT OF THE BUST-LICT OF THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE FUND. The following letter has been sent by John Bigelow floriden in relation to this duty, and is not aware of any subsequent action by your benorable body in the premises.

Of the merits of Mr. Thompson's bust of Bryant there has never been any difference of opinion among experts. It ranks among the greatest achievements of this eminent sculptor; it was taken from hie, and enjoyed the cerdial approval of Mr. Bryant himself and of every member of his family. For these reasets it has been preferred as the special feature of a monumental memorial to any other sculptured representation of our greatest post now practicable.

For a front elsystien of the proposed shrine, which will be submitted to you with this communication, we are also indended for the inclosed more detailed description of the design, to which your attention is respectfully twited. We also ansex a list of contributors toward the expense of this memorial should the design herewith submitted receive the approval of your homorable body, we respectfully request that you will appropriate a suitable site for it in the Central Park, and authorite the committee, represented by the aftersigned, to proved with a per posed memorial of one who was the creation of the paragonal memorial of the who was the creation of the paragonal memorial of one who was the creater of the paragonal memorial of one who was the creation of the paragonal memorial of one who was the creation of the commercial metropoles; who was one of the earliest most indefatigable, and most effected advocates and promoters of our metropolitan para system, and who actified his file in centributing by his genius to

DEMOCRATIC FACTIONS IN OHIO.

THE FAITHFUL QUARRELLING OVER A DIVISION OF THE SPOILS-FIXING THE CON-VENTION DATE.

Columbus, Ohio, June 15 (Special).-The action of the Democratic State Central Committee, which met here today, is regarted as indicative of a revival of the factional fends in the party ranks. The Democratic leaders are much exercised over the failure of the faithful to secure places under the National Administration, and each faction is charging the delay to bad faith on the part of certain Congressmen and Senator Brice and ex-Governor Campbell. mown that several appointments for important places in the Internal Revenue service, as well as National bank examiners and other important offices, are "hung up" because Congressman Outhwaite and Senator Brice are "out." This is particularly the case with regard to appointments that naturally should go to Central Ohio. Mr. Outhwaite is looked upon as being very close to President Cleveland, but enator Brice has succeeded in "hanging up" several candidates recommended by the Congressman. In a pirit of retaliation Mr. Outhwaite has declined soft the "hustlers" are out in the cold. This has opened up the factional differences, and hope of entering the campaign with united forces is now prac-tically abandoned. There is no longer any room to doubt that each faction is playing to secure possescon of the party organization, Mr. Brice's object be ing to pave the way for his re-election to the Senate the with the Campbell following, it is charged that he is antagonistic to the senator, and this is offered explanation of Mr. Brice's course regarding the crations of the committee to-day, and the Brice McLean faction scored a victory in having Cincinnati named as the place for holding the State Convention. The unti-campbell sentiment is strong in vincinnati, but it is admitted that his following in the state will control the convention, and there is a strong sentiment in favor of forcing him main to accept the nomination for Governor. In sever that he will not permit the use of his name, an effort is to be made to induce Congressman Outhwaite to bee me a candidate.

A WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

SHE TIVED IN A TENEMENT-HOUSE AND PROB-ABLY SET FIRE BY ACCIDENT TO HER BED. Bridget Henry, forty years old, the wife of Peter Henry, a laborer, was burned to death in her bedroom on the top floor of the tenement-house. No. 241 East Fifty ninth st. about 9:30 a. in. yesterday. She had several children, but they all were out of the house work. Other immates of the tenement-house smelled to call the firemen, but before the engines arrived some men in the house put out the flames with pails of water. A bed in Mrs. Henry's room was burned, but the damage to property was slight. Mrs. Henry's body was found under the bed, and beside it were the fragments of a herosene lamp. The police made an to the significant and said that the woman doubtless had crawled under the hed with a lighted lamp to look for bedfungs and had set fire to the bed by accident. Then she had been sufficient before she could get from under the bed. Her bedy was charred by the flames. THE OVAL CLUB INCORPORATED.

INTERNATIONAL MISSIONARY UNION.

ING AT CLIFTON SPRINGS.

PAPERS AND DISCUSSIONS BEFORE THE GATHER-

Cafton Sp.lugs, N. Y., June 15 (Special).-The second day of the International Missionary Union's meeting began to show the union as a summer school of missions. The programme groups papers, discussions and platform addresses on a geographical plan including the main missionary lands of the world. To-day was given to the Mahometan and nominal Christian people and to American aborigines. Egerton R. Young, of the Methodist missions about Hudson's Bay, thrilled his hearers with his recent experiences. During the last year he has revisited his old field and renews assurances that Indians can be Christianized and civilized, whether Apaches or those who speak the language of the Canada Olibways or Sotos, among whom Dr. Young labored, or Crees, etc. The remainder of the afternoon was occupied with addresses on missions in Romaii Catholic countries. The Rev. W. Powell, of the Baptist work in India, spoke of the opposition met with from priests in the famous Teligri field. He was followed by the Rev. F. D. Phinney, Baptist, of Burmah. Dr. Cushing spoke for the Italian Sunday-school and Bible work. Mrs. Craver gave a thrilling account of Methodist trials in Mexico, and Mrs. E. G. Plemens spoke of the work in The union's devotional sessions are among its best, prayer filling a large place, not only during the first hour of each day, but interspersed throughout all the sessions. This morning remarks were made on the effect of missionary life and of the reflex influence of heathenism upon the missionaries themselves, and the peculiar effect of this society was fercibly shown in the testimony by missionaries of the following diverse evangelical denominations scattered over the following lands: Fresbyterians, Dr. Nassau, from Africa, G. Reid and Dr. C. R. Mills, of China; the Rev. E. G. Fhilips, a Rap ist, from Assam; the Rev. A. B. Norton, an independent missionary, from Inda; Methodists, J. Saunby, of Canada, from Japan; Dr. for any and sunger, man, and w. P. Pergassa, see it of and these of the American Board: Miss Crosby, of Micronesia; Miss Bush, of Turkey, and H. A. Cotton, of Western Africa. The general testimony concessed to a depressing effect from heathen surroundings, but a strenger and higher spiritual life, consequent upon the atribe between forces of evil and of cond.

sequent upon the strike between forces of code good.

A letter was received from the Missionary Club of London, extending the privileges of that organization to the members of this union. The Rev. George Fatterson will be communicated with on the subject by a committee constitue of Dr. James Mudge and the Rev. C. A. Nichols.

Missionaries continue to come in as well as ministers and people from the surrounding region, taxing the resources of the sanitarium. The weather is line.

NO KAPID TRANSIT MEETING.

THE COMMISSIONERS MAY COME TOGETHER TO-DAY-ALL ANXIOUS TO DO SOMETHING.

The Rapid Transit Commission did not meet veterday, owing to the absence of Samuel Spencer, who is still in Stratoga. It is hardly probable now that he will return before Monday. If he should come to town to day a meeting will be held late this afternoon. There were practically no new developments in the rapid transit situation vesterday. Those Commissioners who were in town had nothing to say other than that they were anxious to hold a meeting. since Mayor Gilroy has officially announced that he will not accept the resignations of the four commissioners until they have made one more effort to give the city something in return for the $125,000 which fident feeling that the present commission will return to work. The relief which New-York has so lon waited for in the way of rapid transit will most likely be siven by the Manhattan Company, but the privilege to that company will probably be given upon the lines laid down by the master of the situation, John

THE COURTS.

SHE BLAMES HER FATHER-IN-LAW

A WIFE DEMANDS DANAGES FOR HER HUSBAND'S DESERTION OF HER.

Alexander Pollock, a dealer in ratiroad supplies, at Alexander Polioca, a design in railroad supplies, at No. 15 Cortlandt-st., is the defendant in a suit brought by Ellen Pollock, the wife of his son, Edward E. Follock, for alienating her husband's affections. Mrs. Pollock sues for $50,000 damages, and the suit will probably come up in the Court of Common Please at the control of the Common Please and the suit will probably come up in the Court of Common Please. within a day or two. The defendant lives at Nyack.

Mrs. Pollock declares that while she was employed as a domestic at the home of her father-in-law, about six years ago, the son fell in love with her. The couple came to this city and were secretly married at St. Joseph's Church. This was on September 27, 1887. They took apartments at No. 308 West One-hundred and thirty-fifth-st., and lived there for two or three years. On September 7, 1888, a daughter was born.

In the summer of 1890 the husband, who was scarcely twenty-one years old at the time of the marriage, was employed in his father's establishment as a clerk. It was then that he told his parents for the first time of his marriage. Young Mrs. Pollock says in her complaint that her husband's father tried says in her complaint that her husband's father tried by threats, persuasions and offers of money to induce him to desert his wife. She says that on November 26, 1800, her husband did leave her. On January 14, 1801, another daughter was born. She asserts that she was left in a destinate condition while the father-in-law supported the husband in good style.

Seymour & Hopkins are the attorneys for the plaintiff, while A. O. Salter will appear for the desired and the condition of the lawyers could be found has night who would say anything more about the case.

DECISIONS UNDER THE MPKINLEY LAW

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals yes terday handed down decisions in several cases arising under the McKinley law, H. Herrmann, Sternbach & Co., in October, 1890, imported a lot of astrachan, as the article made of cotton and hair in initiation of the wool of the Astrachan lamb is called. The Colle tor levied duty on the importation as coming under the clause concerning "plushes and other pile fabrics, made partly or wholly of wool, worsted or hair from the camel, goat, alpaca or other animal. dutiable as "manufactures made wholly or in part of wool, worsted or hair from the camel, goat, alpaca or other animal." The Board of Appraisers decided in favor of the Collector, but the United States Circuit Court took the opposite view. The Court of Appeals also upheld the importers' position.

The Court of Appeals also decided in favor of the importers in the sult of James R. Townsend & Co. in the matter of 373 bags of taploca. The Collector, the Board of Appraisers and the Circuit Court agreed that taploca was dutiable at 2 cents a pound as starch, but the highest court was of the opinion that the importation was on the free list as taploca.

DAMAGES FOR A DRUGGIST'S MISTAKE.

A jury, before Judge Dugre, in the Superior Court, yesterday brought in a verdict for $150 against Will lam C. Hoyt, a druggist, at Eighth-ave, and Twenty ninth-st., in favor of Alice Klefn, the mother of Edward T. Klein. The suit was brought because of the alleged mistake of the druggist's clerk in giving the boy croton oil when he asked for castor oil. The child drank some of the medicine and was badly injured by it. The druggist denied that any mistake had been made by his clerk. The boy's mother and for $5,000.

THE MARRIAGE OF A YOUNG GIRL ANNULLED. Mary Elizabeth Parker Tompkins Huser, the daughter of Josephine and Millard Fillmore Tompkins, was married to John Harry Hoser, by the Rev. Juliu Ehrhart, in St. Paul's Church, is One-hundred and twenty-fifth-st., on October 31 last. She told the minister that she was nineteen years old, but as a matter of fact she was only fourteen. She went to the home of her parents immediately after the ceremony and has never lived with her husband. Her father was on his dying bed at the time the cera nony was performed. The girl realized the fool Ishness of her rash step, and before she went to live with her husband she repented. Then a suit was brought in her behalf to annut the marriage, on the ground that she was under age when the ceremony was performed. Judgo McAdam, in the Superlor Court, yesterday signed a decree granting the relief asked for by the young woman.
